

Band & Strings Website

BandandStrings.com

The band and strings website can be located at the following web address:

<http://www.bandandstrings.com>

Click on the link for your school. We will use the site to keep Parents & Guardians current with the latest events. You can also visit the site to download any forms that were sent home if the original forms were misplaced.

Parents and Guardians are encouraged to join the mailing list to stay up to date with the latest events.

The photo gallery will be used to post pictures taken by the school faculty or family members at concerts & special events. We will need your permission in order to post them.

We would like to keep Parents & Guardians informed with the progress of their child. Those that wish to be informed may submit their Email address below.

Please return the bottom portion of this letter to your band/strings instructor
