

Storage for Privately Owned Instruments

The DeKalb County School System provides instrument storage in music facilities, and instructors exercise reasonable responsibility in caring for the storage area. Parents are advised, however, to provide some type of insurance coverage for privately owned musical instruments.

The DeKalb County School System carries no insurance which would provide coverage of any kind for privately owned instruments, and no funds are available for repair or replacement should the privately owned instruments be damaged, lost, or stolen.